IN THE JUSTICE COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON
FOR THE COUNTY OF CLACKAMAS

Housing Authority of Clackamas County Plaintiff (Landlord or Agent) v. Jane Kay Cortez, Benjamin Jay Barber, and All Other Occupants Defendants (Tenants or Occupants)	Case No: 26FE0586 EMERGENCY MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT Set Aside Default and Stay Enforcement

Filed by: Jane Kay Cortez and Benjamin Jay Barber, Defendants pro se

Property: 10043 SE 32nd Ave, Milwaukie, OR 97222

Defendants Jane Kay Cortez and Benjamin Jay Barber move for emergency relief from any default judgment, judgment for possession, judgment of restitution, order of default, writ-related order, or other adverse judgment entered after Defendants missed the April 22, 2026 court appearance at 8:15 a.m.

Request

1. Vacate and set aside any default or possession judgment entered on April 22, 2026.
2. Recall, stay, quash, or suspend any notice of restitution, writ of execution, lockout process, or eviction trespass notice.
3. Reset the first appearance or set an emergency hearing on this motion.
4. Accept Defendants' answer, motion to dismiss, and federal relocation defenses for hearing on the merits.
5. Alternatively, stay enforcement long enough for Defendants to pursue appeal and any undertaking, waiver, reduction, or other relief the Court finds just.
6. Grant any other relief necessary to prevent manifest injustice.

Why Relief Is Needed Now

7. Defendants file this motion immediately after discovering that they missed the 8:15 a.m. court appearance.
8. The missed appearance was not intentional. It resulted from a good-faith calendar/time confusion involving a separate housing-related meeting titled "Gmail - Orientation Registration - Cortez - 04_22_2026 @10AM."
9. Both events concerned the same housing crisis, the same household, the same relocation/voucher process, and the same date, April 22, 2026. Defendants were not ignoring the Court; they were attempting to attend to the housing and relocation process intertwined with this eviction.

Legal Basis

10. ORCP 71 B authorizes relief from judgment for mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; voidness; and circumstances where prospective enforcement is no longer equitable.

11. Defendants invoke ORCP 71 B(1)(a), (d), and (e), ORS 105.137, and the Court's equitable authority to prevent manifest injustice.
12. Even on default, a court should not enforce a judgment unsupported by a legally sufficient present claim for possession.

Federal Possession Bar

13. This case is not a routine private holdover. Plaintiff is the Housing Authority of Clackamas County, and the eviction arises from public-housing displacement tied to demolition, disposition, relocation, and Tenant Protection Voucher administration.
14. Federal law controls key conditions precedent to displacement and possession. Under 42 U.S.C. § 1437p and 24 C.F.R. § 970.21, residents displaced by public-housing demolition or disposition must receive comparable housing, relocation expenses, counseling, and actual relocation protections.
15. Tenant-based assistance is not comparable housing until the family is actually relocated into such housing. Under 24 C.F.R. § 972.130(b)(4), where Section 8 voucher assistance is used for relocation, the family must be provided vouchers at least 90 days before displacement.
16. Those rules are not merely background defenses. They bar Plaintiff from obtaining or enforcing possession as though relocation were complete unless the federal relocation prerequisites have actually been satisfied.
17. HACC could not treat Tenant Protection Voucher paperwork or an unfinished housing search as completed comparable housing. HACC also could not use voucher-based relocation as a basis for displacement unless the voucher assistance was provided at least 90 days before displacement where 24 C.F.R. § 972.130 applies.
18. A default judgment entered without adjudicating those defenses rests on a legally insufficient premise: that Plaintiff was presently entitled to possession despite unresolved federal relocation conditions and despite federal law barring displacement before those conditions were satisfied.

Meritorious Defenses

19. Plaintiff failed to plead or prove present entitlement to possession.
20. Plaintiff pursued possession before completing federal relocation duties under 42 U.S.C. § 1437p and 24 C.F.R. § 970.21.
21. Plaintiff did not provide voucher-based relocation assistance at least 90 days before displacement as required where 24 C.F.R. § 972.130 applies.
22. Tenant-based assistance does not count as comparable housing until actual relocation into such housing.
23. Plaintiff's own records show the relocation/voucher path was active and unresolved in March and April 2026.
24. Plaintiff's process also implicates reasonable-accommodation, live-in-aide, disability, and emergency-transfer issues that were not resolved before the possession request.

Manifest Injustice

25. Allowing the judgment to stand would cause manifest injustice: loss of home, loss of possession, possible lockout, loss or collapse of relocation and voucher rights, and possible destruction of the subject matter before the Court reaches the merits.
26. The prejudice to Defendants is extreme. Plaintiff can still litigate possession on the merits if default is set aside.

Conclusion

Defendants respectfully ask the Court to set aside any default or judgment, stay enforcement immediately, reset the matter for hearing on the merits, and grant all relief necessary to preserve the tenancy, relocation process, voucher rights, and the Court's ability to decide the case lawfully.

DATED: April ___, 2026.

Respectfully submitted,

IN THE JUSTICE COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON
FOR THE COUNTY OF CLACKAMAS

Housing Authority of Clackamas County Plaintiff (Landlord or Agent) v. Jane Kay Cortez, Benjamin Jay Barber, and All Other Occupants Defendants (Tenants or Occupants)	Case No: 26FE0586 DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF EMERGENCY MOTION Benjamin Jay Barber and Jane Kay Cortez

I, Benjamin Jay Barber, declare:

1. I am a Defendant in this case. I make this declaration from my own personal knowledge unless otherwise stated.
2. The court appearance in this eviction matter was scheduled for April 22, 2026 at 8:15 a.m.
3. I missed that appearance by mistake. I did not intentionally fail to appear, and I did not intend to abandon any defense.
4. I confused the 8:15 a.m. court appearance with a separate housing-related meeting on the same date. The separate meeting was reflected in a document/email titled "Gmail - Orientation Registration - Cortez - 04_22_2026 @10AM."
5. I understood that 10:00 a.m. meeting to be connected to Multnomah County / housing orientation and the same relocation/voucher process intertwined with this eviction case.
6. Because both events concerned the same housing crisis and occurred on the same date, I conflated the times in good faith.
7. I have actively tried to defend this case. Before the missed appearance, I had prepared or caused to be prepared a motion to dismiss, a federal authority packet, and arguments concerning HACC's unresolved relocation and Tenant Protection Voucher duties.
8. My household has substantial defenses to possession, including that HACC had not completed the relocation/voucher process before pursuing possession and that federal law required comparable housing and actual relocation protections.
9. Allowing a default or possession judgment to stand would cause severe prejudice, including loss of home, possible lockout, disruption of relocation rights, and possible loss or collapse of voucher/subsidy protections before the merits are heard.
10. I acted promptly once I realized the mistake and ask the Court to set aside any default or judgment and allow the matter to be heard on the merits.

11. Attached as Exhibit A is the document titled "Gmail - Orientation Registration - Cortez - 04_22_2026 @10AM," which reflects the separate 10:00 a.m. housing-related orientation that contributed to the confusion.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED: April ___, 2026, at Milwaukie, Oregon.

Benjamin Jay Barber

I, Jane Kay Cortez, declare:

1. I am a Defendant in this case.
2. I understand that the April 22, 2026 8:15 a.m. court appearance was missed because of confusion with a separate 10:00 a.m. housing-related orientation meeting on the same date.
3. I did not intend to abandon my defenses or consent to eviction.
4. I ask the Court to set aside any default or possession judgment and allow the case to be heard on the merits.
5. I face serious prejudice and manifest injustice if a default judgment results in loss of my home, loss of relocation rights, or loss of voucher/subsidy protections before my defenses are heard.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED: April ___, 2026, at Milwaukie, Oregon.

I have an eviction court scheduled for that same time at the Clackamas county justice court where I have submitted a motion to dismiss for failure to obey federal law and give me 90 days from the issuance of a voucher to file an eviction. Otherwise the staff at the Vera want you to contact them to get us moved there. Please thank Clackamas county for being retarded and wasting everyone’s time

Hello,

Are you saying your court was scheduled the same time orientation is?

Also, you just need to give the Vera the RFTA and lead paint disclosure. I don't do anything with the property until I receive the voucher and lead paint receipt from Jane and the RFTA and Lead paint disclosure from the property.
