Exhibit G Cover Sheet

IN THE CLACKAMAS COUNTY JUSTICE COURT
STATE OF OREGON

HOUSING AUTHORITY OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY,
Plaintiff,

v.

BENJAMIN JAY BARBER and JANE KAY CORTEZ,
Defendants.

Case No. 26FE0586

Exhibit Information

- Exhibit Number: Exhibit G
- Exhibit Title: HACC January 8, 2026 Blossom / TPV Notice
- Source File: included/07_Exhibit_G_HACC_Jan_2026_blossom.pdf
- Relevant Source Page(s): page 1
- Source Type: PDF

Assertion Supported

This exhibit is offered in support of the following assertion:

> HACC directed defendants into a specific replacement-housing path tied to Blossom or a Tenant Protection Voucher, and stated that the TPV process had not yet started.

Where Used In The Filing

- Filing Document: Response To Eviction Motion And Cross-Motion For Preliminary Injunctive Or Other Interim Relief
- Section / Paragraph / Page: Short Basis; Requested Relief paragraph 4 context; Memorandum section II and III
- Related Motion Or Memo Quote: HACC's own January 8, 2026 notice required defendants to proceed through a Blossom-or-TPV replacement-housing path.

Why This Exhibit Matters

This exhibit matters because:

1. it shows HACC itself directed the household into the replacement-housing chain;
2. it shows the TPV process was still not started as of January 8, 2026; and
3. it supports the theory that eviction was premature while HACC's own chosen path remained unfinished.

Page Targeting Note

The key material appears at:

- Source page: 1
- Highlight / sentence / record point: the notice directing the household to Ashley Ferron and identifying the Blossom / TPV choice

Assembly Note

Place this cover sheet immediately before Exhibit G in the binder.

IMPORTANT: ACTION REQUIRED

Dear Jane Cortez,

We are writing to share important information about your housing options and what to do next.
You have been referred to Blossom and Community Apartments for a unit. The property team has let us know they have tried to contact you, but have not been successful in reaching you to schedule a time to come in and complete the application for the unit currently on hold for you.

We understand this is a stressful and uncertain time. Many people want to keep their options open. However, a unit at Blossom and Community Apartments cannot be held as a backup option. You will need to choose one path:

Option 1: Move forward with an apartment at Blossom and Community Apartments, or
Option 2: Look for housing on the open market using a Tenant Protection Voucher.

Please keep the following in mind:

- You must submit an application for a unit at Blossom and Community Apartments by the end of the day on 01/08/2026.
- If you do not start the application by this date, your referral will be marked inactive, and a unit will no longer be available to you at Blossom and Community Apartments.
- We also want to be transparent; we cannot promise the two buildings being developed will be ready before Hillside Park residents are required to move.

What to do next:

- If you want to move forward with Blossom and Community Apartments, please contact them to schedule a time to complete an application by 01/08/2026:
  Blossom and Community Apartments
  (503) 961-6194 or Blossom@quantumres.com

- If you want to look for housing using a Tenant Protection Voucher, please contact Ashley Ferron to start that process. If you received this letter, the Tenant Protection Voucher process has not yet started for you:
  Ashley Ferron
  (503) 867-7487 or HACC-Relocation@Clackamas.us

We know these decisions can feel overwhelming. Please take time to review your options, and reach out if you have questions or need help. We are here to support you.

Sincerely,

Ashley Ferron

Exhibit Information

- Exhibit Number: Exhibit T
- Exhibit Title: February 2, 2026 Comparator Email to Ashley Ferron and Blossom

- Relevant Source Page(s): email body
- Source Type: EML

Assertion Supported

This exhibit is offered in support of the following assertion:

> Benjamin Barber contemporaneously complained that Quantum / Blossom had not sent the application onward and was engaging in race-based unequal treatment.

Where Used In The Filing

- Filing Document: Motion For Joinder Of Quantum Residential Property Management, L.P.; Motion To Show Cause; Declarations
- Section / Paragraph / Page: Joinder alternative basis; show-cause basis; Benjamin declaration
- Related Motion Or Memo Quote: Benjamin Barber contemporaneously complained that Blossom had not processed the application, had refused to house a service animal, and had engaged in race discrimination.

Why This Exhibit Matters

This exhibit matters because:

1. it preserves the contemporaneous comparator and race-discrimination complaint;
2. it shows Quantum-side notice of the application-processing problem; and
3. it supports the theory that the nonprocessing was not a harmless clerical issue.

Recipient-Limit Note

This exhibit is the cleanest current proof in the court-ready packet that Benjamin Barber sent a direct complaint email to blossom@quantumres.com. Later complaint-chain proof to charity@magikcorp.com is staged separately as Exhibit R.

The key material appears at:

- Source page: email body
- Highlight / sentence / record point: the Balfour Park comparator paragraph and the statement accusing Quantum of race-based lemon dropping

Assembly Note

Place this cover sheet immediately before Exhibit T in the binder.

Subject: Re: Allegations of Fraud - JC Household

Today I met a black couple with one child at Balfour park. They had told me that they were interviewing for the blossom apartments, and that they had just been granted section 8. I had previously recieved a letter from Ashley Ferron stating that they couldn't guarantee that apartments would be available at blossom before we would be expected to vacate these premises. Moreover I found out that the application that i did submit to Blossom was never submitted to the housing authority of clackamas county, and they had told me in other correspondence that they had never seen the application to the blossom.

Therefore I am providing notice of tort claim, that I believe that quantum residential is engaging in the illegal practice of "lemon dropping", and that moreover that they are "lemon dropping" on the basis of race.

- Source File: exhibits/Exhibit_Y_Blossom_leaseup_page_excerpt.txt
- Relevant Source Page(s): source lines 470-481 from HACC/blossom-community-apartments
- Source Type: Text excerpt from preserved local webpage source

Assertion Supported

This exhibit is offered in support of the following assertion:

> HACC publicly stated that Blossom and Community Apartments applications would be processed through HACC's PBV waitlist and that Hillside relocation households were priority groups.

Where Used In The Filing

- Filing Document: Eviction memorandum; joinder memorandum; show-cause memorandum
- Section / Paragraph / Page: Eviction memorandum § II.A; joinder memorandum § VI; show-cause memorandum § II
- Related Motion Or Memo Quote: HACC's public Blossom lease-up page states that applications for Blossom and Community Apartments will be processed through HACC's PBV waitlist and that Hillside relocation households are priority groups.

Why This Exhibit Matters

This exhibit matters because:

1. it links Blossom to HACC's own public PBV waitlist structure;

2. it supports the claim that defendants were directed into an official HACC-administered replacement-housing path; and

3. it shows that Hillside relocation households were not supposed to be treated as outsiders to that process.

Page Targeting Note

The key material appears at:

- Source page: local source lines 481-481
- Highlight / sentence / record point: the PBV waitlist and priority-group language on the Blossom lease-up page

Assembly Note

Place this cover sheet immediately before Exhibit Y in the binder.

Relevant source lines:

470-481

Excerpt:

The first new apartment building at the Hillside Redevelopment, Blossom & Community Apartments, is scheduled for completion Nov. 1, 2025.

The building includes 100 units supported with project-based Section 8 rental assistance.

Leasing Information

Applications for Blossom & Community Apartments will be processed through HACC's PBV waitlist.

Leasing priority will be provided to Phase 1 residents relocated from Hillside Park who are interested in returning to the new building, Phase 2 residents facing relocation, and residents living in existing Housing Authority of Clackamas County (HACC) public housing properties who are facing relocation due to Public Housing Repositioning.

After the priority groups are given the opportunity to submit their interest in leasing a unit at Blossom & Community, remaining units will be made available to households on the HACC Project-Based voucher (PBV) waitlist.

- Relevant Source Page(s): source lines 32296-32320, 34472-34490, 35690-35820, 37298-37316
- Source Type: Text excerpt from preserved local Administrative Plan source

Assertion Supported

This exhibit is offered in support of the following assertion:

> HACC's Administrative Plan identifies Hillside Manor as a PBV and RAD PBV project, identifies Quantum as the property manager, and states that HACC manages separate waiting lists for RAD PBV projects including Hillside Manor.

Where Used In The Filing

- Filing Document: Eviction memorandum; joinder memorandum; show-cause memorandum
- Section / Paragraph / Page: Eviction memorandum § II.A and § III; joinder memorandum § VI; show-cause memorandum § II
- Related Motion Or Memo Quote: HACC's July 1, 2025 Administrative Plan identifies Hillside Manor as a RAD PBV project, identifies Quantum Residential Property Management as the property management company, and states that HACC will manage separate waiting lists for RAD PBV projects including Hillside Manor.

Why This Exhibit Matters

This exhibit matters because:

1. it grounds the Quantum/Hillside Manor relationship in HACC's own records;

2. it supports the claim that the application and waiting-list route was part of an official HACC-administered process; and

3. it strengthens the joinder and show-cause theories by tying Quantum to the same replacement-housing chain HACC says was in play.

The key material appears at:

- Source page: local source lines 32296-32320, 34472-34490, 35690-35820, 37298-37316
- Highlight / sentence / record point: the Hillside Manor PBV entry, the RAD PBV project entry, the Quantum property-management language, and the separate waiting-list language

v.

BENJAMIN JAY BARBER and JANE KAY CORTEZ,
Defendants.

Case No. 26FE0586

- Source File: exhibits/Exhibit_AA_March_26_2026_options_email.txt
- Relevant Source Page(s): message body excerpt from March 26, 2026 email
- Source Type: Text excerpt from preserved email record

Assertion Supported

This exhibit is offered in support of the following assertion:

> On March 26, 2026, HACC put three relocation paths in writing, required all of them to be completed by April 30, 2026, and warned that eviction documentation would be filed if the move was not completed.

Where Used In The Filing

- Filing Document: Eviction response motion; eviction memorandum; show-cause memorandum; packet summaries
- Section / Paragraph / Page: Response short basis; eviction memorandum § II.A; show-cause memorandum § II; summary sheets
- Related Motion Or Memo Quote: HACC's March 26, 2026 options email then confirmed that relocation was still being administered through three unresolved housing paths, all with an April 30, 2026 completion deadline and a threatened eviction consequence if the move was not completed.

Why This Exhibit Matters

This exhibit matters because:

1. it is the cleanest direct record of HACC's own three-path relocation framework late in the process;

2. it shows HACC was still treating relocation as active and unresolved on March 26, 2026; and
3. it directly links the unresolved housing paths to the threatened eviction timeline.

- Source page: message body excerpt
- Highlight / sentence / record point: the "all options require a move by April 30" language and the "eviction documentation will be filed" language
